Travel

Lake Wanaka is a scenic one hour drive from Queenstown, which features its own domestic and international airport, connecting the region to the world. International flights are from Australia's East Coast and are provided by Air New Zealand, Qantas, Virgin Australia and Jetstar. There are numerous domestic air connections around New Zealand. By road Wanaka is the gateway to/from the Haast Pass, accessing the West Coast through the Southern Alps.

Driving:
- Queenstown - 1 hour
- Aoraki/Mt Cook - 2.5 hours
- Fox Glacier (West Coast)- 3 hours
- Christchurch - 5 hours

From the moment you enter, find rest, and a space to pause.
